Hong Kong - The Hong Kong Association of Accredited Advertising Agencies (HK4As) is calling for entries for the 2010 Kam Fan Awards, to be held in late November.

The Kam Fan, also known as the "Golden Sail", first started in 1984 and seeks to recognize advertising excellence in Hong Kong.

Details about the entries can be found here.

Each year HK4As invites a select group of local and international judges from across the region and around the world.

This year's judges include international creatives Gustav Martner, partner and executive creative director of Crispin Porter + Bogusky Europe, Gotz Ulmer, creative partner at Jung von Matt in Germany and Prangthip Seelos, executive creative director Creative Juice/G1 Bangkok.

David Guerrero, chairman BBDO Guerrero/Proximity Philippines, Chris Kyme, director of KYMECHOW Hong Kong, Victor Ng, independent creative director from Singapore and KC Tsang, assistant professor at the School of Design, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University will also be part of the judging panel.
